

"An Event You Won't Want to Miss"

International Law Society

St. Louis Edition

Today, mostly sunny, high 60,
wind at 10 to 15 m.p.h.
Tonight, clear skies, low 39,
wind at 5 to 10 m.p.h.
Tomorrow, expect the same.

VOL. MMXX . . . No. 11, 16

© 2020 International Law Society

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 2020

Printed in St. Louis

Free

SECURING A CAREER IN INTERNATIONAL LAW: KEYNOTE AND PANEL

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 2020 AT 12:00 P.M. (C.D.T.)

Our Panelists

By I.L.S. EXECUTIVE BOARD

Following Mr. Juvelier's keynote presentation, we will hear from a panel of experienced professionals to discuss opportunities in the vast field of international law. In alphabetical order, our first panelist is Nicole Cortés. Ms. Cortés is the co-director and an attorney at the Migrant and Immigrant Community Action Project here in St. Louis. In 2012, she obtained both her J.D. and her M.S.W. from Washington University.

Our next panelist is Ashley Hammett. In 2014, she obtained her L.L.M. in International and U.S. Law from WashULaw, and two years later, she graduated with her J.D. Today, Ms. Hammett works as an associate at Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan in London. Before her current position, Ms. Hammett worked at Shearman & Sterling, where, among other things, she represented plaintiffs in a lawsuit holding the Syrian government accountable for the extrajudicial killing of a war correspondent.

Our third panelist is Morton Holbrook III. After graduating from University of Chicago Law School in 1972, Mr. Holbrook landed a position on the legal staff of Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger. After a career that also included postings in New York, Manila, Paris, Tokyo and Washington, D.C., Mr. Holbrook is now a professor of international law and U.S. foreign policy at Brescia University in Western Kentucky.

Our final panelist is Kristin Smith. In 2014, Ms. Smith graduated from WashULaw where she, too, was a member of International Law Society. She now works as the director of the Atrocity Crimes Initiative at the American Bar Association Criminal Justice Section. The Atrocity Crimes Initiative is a group of projects focused on atrocity prevention, response, and accountability. It includes the I.C.C. Project, the I.C.J. Standards Project and the Atrocity Prevention and Response Project, as well as other short-term research initiatives on atrocity crimes.

Clockwise from top left: Ben Juvelier is our keynote speaker; Nicole Cortés is the co-director and an attorney at the M.I.C.A. Project; Ashley Hammett is an associate at Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan; Morton Holbrook III is a former foreign service officer; and Kristin Smith is the Director of the Atrocity Crimes Initiative.

Our Keynote Speaker

By I.L.S. EXECUTIVE BOARD

Our keynote speaker will be Ben Juvelier. In 2017, Mr. Juvelier graduated summa cum laude from American University Washington College of Law. After obtaining his J.D., he worked as a law fellow for the Public International Law & Policy Group where he supported their projects in Bangladesh, Myanmar and Tanzania. Currently, Mr. Juvelier works for the American Society of International Law in Washington, D.C. where he engages in extensive programmatic development, including series and single events on all topics of law, featuring senior professionals and experts from around the world.

About I.L.S.

By I.L.S. EXECUTIVE BOARD

The International Law Society at WashULaw is an organization dedicated to the pursuit of academic and professional opportunities in private and public international law. Our goals include connecting students with peers and professionals in the community with international legal experience and promoting the proliferation of international legal knowledge through seminars and academic panels. To the latter end, we work closely with the brilliant minds at the Whitney R. Harris World Law Institute.

We hope to bring global perspectives to our small corner of St. Louis.

ZOOM MEETING I.D.

922 0673 6746

Join us on Monday, November 16 at 12:00 p.m. (C.D.T.) by entering the Meeting I.D. above or by visiting wustl.zoom.us/j/92206736746.

JOIN TO WIN

A Starbucks Gift Card

As if the content of this event was not reason enough, your attendance enters you in a chance to win either a $5 or $10 Starbucks gift card!

JOIN TO WIN

A Comfort Colors Tee

In addition to your chance to win a $25 gift card, your attendance also enters you into a chance to win a custom I.L.S. Comfort Colors t-shirt!

GODSPEED

Good Luck on Finals!

As this tumultuous year and an unusual semester come to a close, we wish all of our members well on their upcoming finals!

SEE YOU SOON

Monday, November 16

0 354733 2